“We Reserve the Right to Accept Everybody”

Childcare is provided in the education center. Hearing assistance receivers are available from an usher.

Following worship, join one another for a reception period downstairs. As a hospitality to visitors, a tour of the historic Meeting House will be conducted at 12:15 PM.

Our pastor and deacons welcome the opportunity to speak with you about your interest in church membership. You may speak to them confidentially the first and third Sundays of the month in the Inquirer’s Room located on the first level of the Meeting House just off the main hallway. We are eager, too, to respond to your questions of a faith matter or personal concern. Please confer with the pastor as you leave church today or call the church office to arrange a home visit or office appointment.

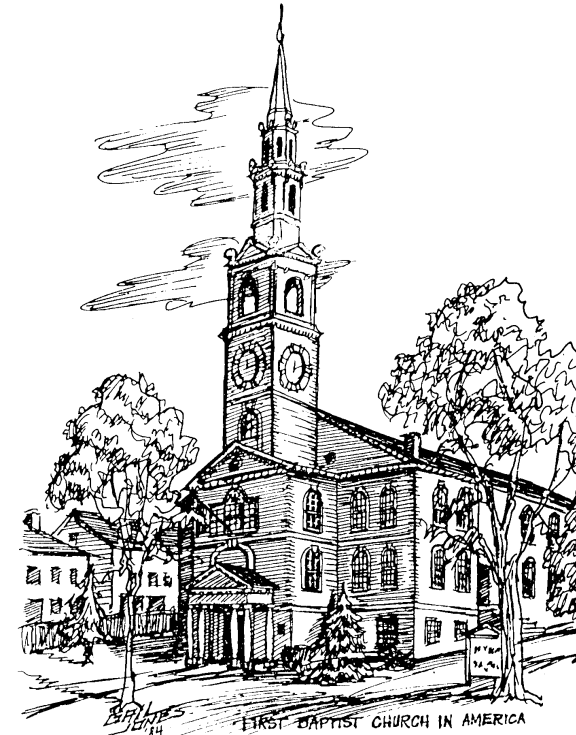

Sunday’s preaching is available on our website at www.fbcia.org.

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

As people of faith, we may be called to respond to people in need in unusual ways. In today’s story four men lower a paralytic through the roof of a house in order to place him before Jesus for healing. There are obstacles to overcome. First the crowd blocking the door and then the scribes accusing Jesus of blasphemy when he forgives the man’s sins. But Jesus then tells him to pick up his bedding and go home. The man wordlessly gets up and leaves, demonstrating not only his own faith but also Jesus authority to forgive and heal.

“When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, ‘Son, your sins are forgiven,’ (Mark 2:5)

Call to Worship “The People of God”

Leader: We are the people of God.

People: We have gathered to give our worship to the One who gave us life, redeemed us in Christ, and who, having redeemed us, has the right lay claim to our lives.

Leader: We are the people of God, and the means through which God ministers to his world.

People: We give back to God our skills, our experience, our service and our money, that both directly and indirectly we may help those in need.

All: Lord, show us all that you want us to do, in your church and throughout the world. Remind us again that what we do for others, we do for you. Amen.
