SUNDAY MORNING WORSHIP

Preludes Benediction Op 33 N 4B

Salve Regina

Sigfrid Karg-Elert Paul Hofhaimer

Greeting

Rev. Dr. Thomas R. McKibbens

Quiet Time for Reflection

* A Call to Worship

Leader: We rejoice in the gathering of God's people! People: We give thanks for each person here.

Leader: For each one is important to the body of Christ,

People: And together we are more than a group of individuals.

Leader: Let us, therefore, draw near to God. ALL: And God will draw near to us!

*Invocation (Unison)

From the harried daily round of our lives we turn aside to seek your peace, O Lord. From the jungles of competition, from the swamps of tasks that multiply beyond our power to manage them, from the quicksand of temptations that swallow down our good intentions. Push back the inner door which we have left ajar for you, and in the quietness and beauty of this place, bring calm to every restless soul. Teach the truths that never change, and in your never-failing power let our weakness find fresh strength. In the spirit of Christ, who taught us to pray...

...Our Father, who art in heaven....(Please use "debts")
