SUNDAY MORNING WORSHIP

Prelude Two Songs Without Words Felix Mendelssohn

Welcome

*Unison Invocation

We thank you, God, for fathers. Thank you for fathers who have striven to balance the demands of work, marriage, and children with an honest awareness of both joy and sacrifice.

Thank you for fathers who, lacking a good model for a father, have worked to become a good father.

Thank you for fathers who by their own account were not always there for their children, but who continue to offer children, now grown, their love and support. We pray for fathers who have been wounded by the neglect and hostility of their children.

Thank you for fathers who, despite divorce or separation, remain in their children's lives.

Thank you for fathers whose children are adopted, and whose love and support offered healing.

Thank you for stepfathers who freely choose the obligation of fatherhood and earned their step children's love and respect.

We pray for fathers who lost a child to death, and continue to hold the child in their heart.

Thank you for men who have no children, but cherish the next generation as if they were their own. Thank you for men who have "fathered" us in their role as mentors and guides.

Thank you for men who are about to become fathers; may they openly delight in their children.

Thank you for fathers, grandfathers, and uncles who have died, but live on in memories and whose love continues to nurture us. Amen.
