SUNDAY MORNING WORSHIP

Preludes Harvest Preludes Rued Langgaard

Welcome

*Call to Worship

One: In deep gratitude we come to worship God.

All: We recognize God as the source of all goodness.

One: All good gifts come from the Spirit of God:
love, peace, joy, patience, kindness, gentleness are all of God.

All: We come with grateful hearts, not for things, but for who God is.

We gather to show our gratitude in community, song, and prayer. Amen.

~adapted from Joanna Harader

*Greeting One Another

Announcements

*Responsive Invocation

One: The earth shakes, the mountains quake—tempting our hearts to fear.

All: God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.

One: Storms rage, winds swirl—destroying schools, hospitals, homes.

All: Still, God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.

One: Violence comes to light in our communities and violence continues around the world—causing us to wonder if our prayers for peace are futile.

All: Yet God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.

One: For those mourning and rebuilding after the storms,
God is our refuge.

For those living in fear of neighbors,
God is our strength.

For those dreading the hiss of a drone-fired missile,
God is present.

For the distraught and displaced and dismembered
in around the world,

All: God is a very present help in trouble.

Therefore, we will not fear.

Therefore, we will lay down our weapons and lift up our God.
Amen.

Hymn 381 Come Ye Thankful People Come
St. George's, Windsor

Scripture Psalm 46:1-6, 8-10

Anthem Psalm 105 Heinrich Schütz

Prayers of the People

Abba God in heaven, hallowed be your name! May your reign come; may your will be done on earth as it is in heaven: give us today the bread of Tomorrow. Forgive us our debts, as we forgive those indebted to us. Don't put us to the test, but free us from evil.
For yours is the power and the glory forever. Amen.
